

The Face Of Our Friends

Friends of the Libraries Chair
Catherine Jordan
leads off a section recognizing the impact of our supporters.

We are very fortunate to have the University of Minnesota Libraries, one of the University's and the state's greatest intellectual assets, in our community. It is a resource that the Friends of the Libraries is committed to sharing with people interested in the arts, sciences, environment, government, medicine, food, and technology. Everyone — from student to retiree both near and far — benefits from the Libraries' collections, archives, and librarians.

It is my great pleasure to welcome you to the 2019-20 season of the Friends of the Libraries. We are especially excited to welcome new and returning members.

Our board members have been working hard to create scintillating events for this year's Friends Forum: A Series for Curious Minds. Members receive invitations to all events, which are either free or have reduced fees for members. No matter where you live, you can enjoy our programs via video recordings posted on our website. Mark your calendars to join us!

- Gotta Minute? (for Silly but Serious Science about the Environment) — October 14, 2019
- The Secret Life of Libraries: An evening of radio antics with Sue Scott, Tim Russell and Richard Dworsky (with special offer to Friends members) — December 9, 2019
- A Feast of Words with Ananya Chatterjee: Dancing For the Constitution — January 30, 2020
- Pankake Poetry Series with Wang Pang: My Name Is Immigrant — April 2, 2020
- Friends of the Libraries Annual Celebration: Details forthcoming

The best part of being connected to the Friends of the Libraries is the people you meet. We are an engaged group of curious minds who care about the intellectual and cultural resources of our community and we share an interest in seeking to better understand the wider world which is reflected in our thoughtfully curated programming.

It takes resources to keep the University Libraries at the leading edge of knowledge. With less than two years left of the University's "Driven" campaign, the Libraries $18 million goal is within reach. I hope you'll consider joining the Friends of the Libraries members and other supporters in contributing to the campaign and ensuring that our award-winning University Libraries thrives and remains at the heart of higher education and a resource open to all. Information on the many ways to give to the University Libraries can be found on page 14 of this insert.

Welcome aboard!

Catherine Jordan

Chair, Friends of the University of Minnesota Libraries

P.S. If you're not a Friends' member, please join us!
It's easy to give online at z.umn.edu/GiveToFriends

Academic libraries have always held a special place at universities — they are the foundation of scholarship, the spark that leads to discovery, the keepers of the rare and valuable primary source materials. In today's digital age, libraries are even more vital. Though our work has changed dramatically, our mission to advance knowledge and enrich lives continues to burn brightly. We are grateful to the many donors listed here for their generosity in supporting our mission. Thank you!

Thank you for giving more than $2.7 million to Libraries these past 12 months!

You fuel trailblazing programs that connect people with support, information, and technology across University colleges and disciplines. Together we've raised $14 million since the start of the Driven campaign and are on course to reach our $18 million campaign goal.

You can make this record-breaking goal a reality:

- Sign up for a recurring monthly gift of any size, or increase your monthly gift.
- Let us know if you intend to include the Libraries (or archives, or special collections) in your estate plans. Documenting your gift today benefits you and the University Libraries.
- Make a credit card gift in honor of your favorite University of Minnesota library experience, a faculty member, friend, or colleague – or make a gift out of pride for our world-class Libraries.

Donate online through the University of Minnesota Libraries Driven page (givetolib.umn.edu) or by mailing your gift to the University of Minnesota Foundation along with the Gift Form (z.umn.edu/UMNGiftForm).

Become a Friend of the Libraries

Private support is essential as we seek to fulfill our mission to inspire learning and discovery through information resources, collaboration, and expertise; your financial contributions enable us to remain at the forefront of academic libraries. Basic membership in the Friends is $40 each year; at the $80 level, you are eligible for borrowing privileges.

To join, or for more information about the Friends, visit lib.umn.edu/friends, call 612-624-9339, or email stangret@umn.edu.

Benefits include:

- Invitations to lectures, exhibit openings, author readings, and other special events.
- Unlimited access to University Libraries public workstations which includes onsite access to electronic journal, magazine, and newspaper subscriptions, at all Twin Cities campus libraries (for members at the $80 level).
- A subscription to continuum (annual magazine) and Short Stacks (monthly e-newsletter).
- Discounts at the University of Minnesota Bookstore, located in Coffman Memorial Union.
